Provided that where more than one approved probationer is available for such appointment as full member, the seniormost approved probationer shall be appointed.

(c) Where the special rules provide that recruitment to any service, class or category shall normally be both by direct recruitment and by transfer, the provisions of sub-rule (b) shall apply separately as regards

(i) vacancies against which persons have been recruited direct; and

(ii) other vacancies.

(d) No approved probationer shall be required to produce a medical certificate of physical fitness before appointment as a full member of the service:

Provided that in the case of an approved probationer who is not a full member of any other service, the appointing authority may, if it has reason to believe that the probationer's physical fitness has seriously deteriorated since he satisfied the Commission under clause (iv) of sub-rule (a) of rule 5, require him to undergo a fresh medical examination. If on such examination he is found to be physically unfit for the service in the category for which he was selected, the appointing authority shall discharge him from the service and a report thereof shall without delay be made to the Commission.

(e) No person shall at the same time be a full member of more than one service.

A probationer, approved probationer or full member of one service who is appointed to be a full member of another service shall cease to be a member of the former service.

A probationer in any service who is not on duty in that service may be appointed to another service, but if subsequently he is required for duty in the former service while on duty in the latter, he shall elect the service of which he wishes to be a member and on such election, he shall cease to be a member of the other service.

A probationer in any service who is on duty in that service may, if he is willing to give up his membership of that service, be appointed to another service. On such appointment, he shall cease to be a member of the former service.

12. Where the special rules prescribe stoppage of increments as a penalty for failure to pass a special test or acquire a special qualification prescribed in those rules, such failure shall, in the case of a member who has reached the maximum of the time-scale of pay applicable to him, render him liable to any of the other penalties specified in rule 49 of the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules.

13. Seniority in the Service.—(a) The seniority of a member in any service or class of a service shall be determined by the date of his first appointment to such service or class or in the case of a person governed by sub-rule (b) or (c) of rule 8, by the date on which he commences his probation under that sub-rule:

Provided that if any portion of the service of a member does not count towards his probation, his seniority shall be determined by the date of the commencement of his service which counts towards probation:

Provided further that where a service or class consists of more than one category, a person who is appointed to the service or class in a higher category shall take rank in such service or class

(i) until he becomes an approved probationer in such higher category, next below the person who was last appointed, whether substantively or in an officiating capacity, to hold a post in such higher category; and

(ii) on his becoming an approved probationer in such higher category, either next below the person referred to in clause (i) or next below the person who was last appointed substantively to a post in such higher category or, if any person or persons have become approved probationers in such higher category after such substantive appointment, next below such person or such of those persons as completed his probation last as the case may be, whichever will give him the higher rank.

(b) Where the date by which seniority is determined under sub-rule (a) is the same in the case of two or more members of a service or class, their seniority inter se shall be determined by the order of preference, if any, laid down by the Commission in their case. If no such order of preference has been laid down or in case of doubt, seniority shall be determined by the Commission.

(c) A member of a service or class shall, unless he is reduced in seniority as a punishment retain seniority in such service or class as determined by sub-rules (a) and (b) throughout his service notwithstanding any delay in the completion of his probation or in his appointment as a full member of the service or class and irrespective of the category in which he may, from time to time, hold a post.

(d) Where a member of any service, category or grade is reduced to a lower service, category or grade, he shall be placed at the top of the latter unless the authority ordering such reduction, after consultation with the Commission, direct that he shall take rank in such lower service, category or grade, next below any specified member thereof.

14. Promotion.—(a) All promotions shall be made by the appointing authority.

(b) Where special qualifications or special tests are prescribed by the special rules of a service for any category, grade or post therein or in a class thereof, which are not prescribed for a category or grade in such service or class carrying a lower rate of pay, a member in the latter category or grade shall not be promoted to the former category, grade or post, whether in a permanent, officiating or temporary capacity, or where such qualifications or tests are prescribed by the special rules for passing any specified stage in the time-scale of pay applicable to any service, class or category or any post borne on the cadre thereof, a member in such service, class or category or holding such post shall not be permitted to pass such stage, unless he

(i) possesses such qualifications or has passed such tests, or

(ii) possesses such other qualifications as may be considered by the Commission to be equivalent to the said qualifications or tests:

Provided that if none of the members in the category or grade carrying the lower rate of pay is eligible for promotion under this sub-rule, a member in such category or grade may be promoted to the category or grade carrying the higher rate of pay temporarily until a member of the former category or grade qualified under this sub-rule is available for promotion. A member temporarily promoted under this proviso shall not by reason only of such promotion, be entitled to any preferential claim to future promotion.

Explanation.—Nothing contained in this sub-rule shall apply to promotion to a higher category of a member of a service in a lower category who before the date of the issue of these rules had acted in such higher category.

(c) (i) Promotions in a service or class, to a selection category or to a selection grade, shall be made after consultation with the Commission. Such promotions shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (b), be made on grounds of merit and ability, seniority being considered only where the merit and ability are approximately equal.

(ii) All other promotions shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (b), be made in accordance with seniority unless—

(1) the promotion of a member has been withheld as a penalty; or

(2) a member is given special promotion for conspicuous merit and ability,

Provided that the following promotions shall be made after consultation with the Commission :—

(i) Special promotion referred to in sub-clause (2); and

(ii) the promotion of a member from the category in which he was first appointed to the service otherwise than in consultation with the Commission to a higher category direct recruitment to which is according to the special rules, made only in consultation with the Commission.

(d) (i) A member of a service promoted from one category to another shall be on probation in the latter category for a total period of two years on duty within a continuous period of three years. The promotion of a member of a service from one category to another shall, as regards probation, be treated in the same way as a first appointment to the service in the latter category and the provisions of rule 3 [except sub-rule (b) thereof] and of rules 9 and 11 shall mutatis mutandis apply.

Explanation.—In the case of a person who is on probation under this sub-rule, 'discharge' during probation shall mean reverting him to the category from which he was promoted.

(ii) Discharge for want of vacancies of members of a service promoted from one category to another shall be in the order of their juniority in the service.

(iii) A member of a service promoted from one category to another shall, during the period of his probation referred to in clause (i), be paid when holding a post in the latter category the pay which would be admissible to him under the Fundamental Rules if he were a full member of the service in the former category officiating in the latter category.

(e) (i) Where it is necessary in the public interest owing to an emergency which has arisen and could not have been foreseen, to fill immediately a vacancy in a post borne on the cadre of a higher category in a service or class by promotion from a lower category and there would be undue delay in making such promotion in accordance with these rules and the special rules, the appointing authority may promote a person, otherwise than in accordance with the said rules, temporarily, until a person is promoted in accordance with the said rules; but such temporary promotion shall in no case exceed one month on each occasion.

(ii) Where it is necessary to fill a short vacancy in a post borne on the cadre of a higher category in a service or class by promotion from a lower category and the appointment of the person who is entitled to such promotion under these rules and the special rules, would involve excessive expenditure on travelling allowance or exceptional administrative inconvenience, the appointing authority may promote any other person who possesses the qualifications, if any, prescribed for the higher category, but such temporary promotion shall in no case exceed two months on each occasion.

(iii) Every promotion made under clause (i) or (ii) together with all the particulars relating to the person so promoted, namely, the date of promotion, the duration of the vacancy and the period or periods, if any, for which the same person had previously held a post borne on the cadre of the same category, the nature of the emergency or inconvenience and the reasons for the promotion shall be reported to the Commission.

(iv) A person promoted under clause (i) shall be replaced as soon as possible by the member of the service who is entitled to the promotion under the said rules.

(v) A person promoted under clause (i) or (ii) shall not be regarded as a probationer in the higher category or be entitled by reason only of such promotion to any preferential claim to future promotion to such higher category.

If such a person is subsequently promoted to the higher category in accordance with these rules and the special rules, he shall commence his probation in such category from the date of such subsequent promotion or from such earlier date as may be determined in consultation with the Commission.

(vi) When a person appointed under clause (i) or (ii) is discharged, the date of such discharge shall be communicated to the Commission as soon as possible.

(f) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (d), the following provisions shall apply to promotions from a lower to a higher category of a service or class of a service in cases where the lien of a member of such service or class on a post borne on the cadre of the lower category is or has been suspended by reason of his being on foreign service or otherwise :—

(i) if a substantive or officiating vacancy in the higher category arises during the period of suspension of the lien of such a member, he shall, if considered fit, be promoted in his turn to the higher category substantively or in an officiating capacity, as the case may be, subject to the condition that he shall on reversion to duty in the said service or class, undergo and satisfactorily complete the probation prescribed in sub-rule (d) in respect of such higher category ; and

(ii) if a substantive or officiating vacancy in the higher category is in existence when such a member returns to duty in the said service or class or arises after such return, he shall, if considered fit, be promoted to the higher category substantively or in an officiating capacity, as the case may be, in preference to any other member who is junior to him, subject to the condition that he shall undergo and satisfactorily complete the probation prescribed in sub-rule (d) in respect of such higher category.

(g) (i) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (ii) of sub-rule (c)

(1) a member of a service in any category or grade therein or in a class thereof may, irrespective of his seniority, be promoted to a temporary post in a higher category or grade in such service or class borne on the special establishment sanctioned for any project or work to which post promotions are made by an authority other than that having jurisdiction in respect of like posts of a permanent character borne on the cadre of the service to which such special establishment constitutes a temporary addition ; and

(2) a member of a service in any category or grade therein or in a class thereof holding a post borne on the special establishment sanctioned for any project or work may, irrespective of his seniority, be promoted to a temporary post in a higher category or grade in such service or class in the same service, borne on the same establishment.

No member of a service who is promoted under this clause shall, by reason only of such promotion, acquire any preferential right to seniority or promotion in such service.

(ii) The provisions of clause (i) shall apply only to such projects or works and during such periods as the Local Government may, from time to time by notification in the Fort St. George Gazette, direct.

15. Postings and transfers.—(a) A member of a service or class of a service may be required to serve in any part of the Presidency of Madras in any post borne on the cadre of such service or class :

Provided that no such member shall be posted or transferred to any post unless he—

(i) possesses such special qualifications and has passed such special tests as may be prescribed for such post in the special rules, or

(ii) possesses such other qualifications as may be considered by the Commission to be equivalent to the said qualifications and tests.

(b) All transfers and postings shall be made by the appointing authority.

16. Pay, allowances, leave, leave salary, pension and other conditions of service.—The Fundamental Rules, the Madras Leave Rules, 1933, and the pension rules for the time being in force shall, in so far as they may be applicable and except to the extent expressly provided in these rules or the special rules govern members of every service in the matter of their pay, allowances, leave, leave salary, pensions and other conditions of service.

Provided that where any such member has elected to be governed by the provisions of the Civil Service Regulations, those provisions shall apply to him.

17. Savings.—(a) (i) Nothing in these rules shall adversely affect any person who was a member of any service on the date of the coming into force of these rules.

(ii) Nothing in any special rules governing a service shall adversely affect any person who was a member of such service on the date of the coming into force thereof.

(b) Where these rules or the special rules would adversely affect in respect of any matter a person who was a member of any service before the date of coming into force thereof, he shall, in respect of such matter, be governed by the rules and orders, if any, which were applicable to him immediately prior to such date :

Provided that if there were no rules or orders prescribing the period of probation, applicable to him on such date, the provisions of these rules and the special rules regarding probation shall apply to him and any service rendered by him before such date shall count towards probation if and to the extent such service would have counted, had these rules and the special rules come into force at the time of his first appointment.

(c) If, before the issue of the special rules, a person had been exempted under the orders then in force from the possession of any qualification or the passing of any test and the possession of such qualification or the passing of such test is prescribed by such special rules,

No. 23.—The following resolution of the Government of India is republished :—

FINANCE DEPARTMENT.

Simla, the 30th August 1934.

No. D.-6573-F.—In order to implement an undertaking given in the session of the Legislative Assembly in August 1933, and also in accordance with a recommendation made by the Joint Select Committee when dealing with clause 28 of the Reserve Bank Bill, the Government of India in their Resolution No. D.-3503-F., dated the 3rd May 1934, set up a small expert Committee to examine the existing Currency Notes (Refund) Rules, and to report whether any modifications in them were desirable and also to consider and report whether the existing remittance facilities were sufficiently cheap and adequate, and if not, whether there was any action which Government could take to increase these facilities. The Committee met in Bombay on the 8th May 1934 under the Chairmanship of Sir Osborne A. Smith, K.C.I.E., Managing Governor of the Imperial Bank of India, and their report which was submitted on the 11th May 1934 is published for general information.

2. The Government of India are in general agreement with the views expressed in the report, and, in particular they are impressed with the necessity of taking whatever steps are possible to provide cheaper and more adequate means of remittance than are available at present. At the same time, they think that the substantive recommendations of the Committee should be subjected to detailed investigation in the light of information which was not available to the Committee, before they are finally adopted. In the case of the recommendations made for increased postal remittance facilities, for instance, it is clear that no definite action can be taken until it has been ascertained to what extent the net earnings of that Department will be affected. The Postal Department are actively considering this point. As regards other forms of remittance, e.g., remittances of scheduled banks, remittances through currency chests, etc., Government consider that in view of the pending institution of the Reserve Bank it will be desirable in the first instance to submit the Committee's recommendations for the consideration of the Reserve Bank in consultation with the Imperial Bank of India and other concerned interests.

3. The Government of India agree with the opinion of the Committee that it is desirable that steps should be taken to put an end to the practice of remittance by means of cut currency notes. In view of the observations made above and of the fact that the solution of this part of the problem depends on the provision of more adequate remittance facilities, they consider that no modifications should be made in the existing Currency Notes (Refund) Rules for the time being and that the question should be postponed until the Reserve Bank is in a position to take over the control of the currency and the outstanding problems in connection with remittances generally have been fully explored.

4. The Government of India desire to put on record their appreciation of the care and adequacy with which the Committee carried out their work.

Report of the Committee to examine the Currency Notes (Refund) Rules.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
FINANCE DEPARTMENT, SIMLA.

SIR,

We, the undersigned members of the Committee appointed by the Government of India, in their Resolution No. D-23-C-F, dated the 3rd May 1934, have the honour to submit the following report.

2. The terms of reference to the Committee were as follows:—

"To examine the Currency Notes (Refund) Rules, 1921, as modified by the Government of India, Finance Department Notification No. F 4 (XV)-F/27, dated the 19th May 1927, and to consider whether any changes in them is desirable in existing circumstances, and if so, to what extent, and in this connection to consider and report whether the existing remittance facilities are sufficiently cheap and adequate, and if not, whether there is any action that Government could take in order to increase those facilities."

3. It was clear from the outset that the main problem in connection with the Refund Rules arose from the practice of deliberate cutting of notes—a feature peculiar to this country and resorted to not only by private individuals but also to a very large extent, perhaps to the greatest extent, by banks and firms. Although the rules as amended in 1927 introduced a very large element of risk in remittance by this means, that it still persists on a large scale indicates undoubtedly that in the opinion of the public the facilities for remittance by other means are either inadequate or unduly expensive, or both.

4. We shall refer in a later paragraph to the main objections to the system of remittance by means of cut notes, but we shall begin by examining the existing facilities for remittance through Government agency and through banks, and attempt to formulate recommendations which, if accepted, will in our view remove any serious objection to the abolition of the time honoured custom of cutting notes for remittance purposes. In making the various recommendations contained in the succeeding paragraphs we wish to emphasise that they should be regarded as substantially interdependent and that our main proposal that payment on notes which have been deliberately cut should be stopped is based on the assumption that these recommendations would be accepted in their entirety or without radical amendment. On general grounds also we are impressed with the expediency of cheapening and widening remittance facilities, and the necessity of bringing them more into line with those obtaining in other important countries.

5. Remittance facilities in India may be divided into two principal categories, namely, those provided by Government agency at post offices and at places where there are treasuries and sub treasuries, and facilities afforded by banks. We shall examine these separately in the succeeding paragraphs.

6. Remittances through the post office may be made either by money order or by means of currency notes sent in insured covers.

7. Money order system.—The money order system is primarily designed to meet the requirements of the small remitter who is not accustomed to the use of banking facilities. The rates now charged by the post office are as given below:—

	Annas.
Up to Rs. 10	2
Exceeding Rs. 10 but not exceeding Rs. 25 ..	4
On any sum exceeding Rs. 25—
For each complete sum of Rs. 25	4
For the remainder—
If it exceeds Rs. 10	4
If it does not exceed Rs. 10	2

We consider that these rates are unduly high, but we recognise that the remitter is afforded several additional facilities in return for the charges made, e.g., he is able to write a message on the money order coupon, the money remitted is delivered at the destination by the post office and a receipt signed by the payee is sent to the remitter's address without extra cost. While, therefore, we do not recommend that the money order facilities which are available now should be diminished, we consider that some cheapening in the rates is desirable if the requirements of the small remitter are to be met. We suggest the following scale:—

	Annas.
Ordinary—
Up to Rs. 10	2
Exceeding Rs. 10 but not exceeding Rs. 25	4
On any sum exceeding Rs. 25 up to a maximum of Rs. 500—
For each complete sum of Rs. 25	4
For the remainder—
If it exceed Rs. 10	2
If it does not exceed Rs. 10	1

By telegram.—The rates to be the same as for ordinary money orders except that the charge for telegraphic address of the payee and the amount will be added, the charges varying according as the telegram is ordinary or express.

8. We further suggest that in addition to remittance by money orders a new facility should be introduced in the form of postal orders of the denominations of Re 5, Re. 10 and Rs. 20. The cost of these postal orders, which should be made available at all post offices and also payable at any post office, should not be more than one anna for a postal order for Rs. 5 or Rs. 10 and two annas for a postal order for Rs. 20.

9. Remittance by insured post.—The following are the existing rates for the type of remittance:—

	Annas.
Registration fee	3
Insurance fee according to the declared value on the following scale—
Not exceeding Rs. 100	3
Rs. 101 to Rs. 150	4
Rs. 151 to Rs. 200	5
For every additional Rs. 100 or portion thereof over Rs. 200 and up to Rs. 1,000 ..	3
For every add'l Rs. 100 or portion thereof over Rs. 1,000	1

In each case the postage on the actual weight of the parcel must be added.

Remittance by means of insured post is the only facility now available between places where there is no bank, treasury, or sub-treasury. If payment of cut notes is prohibited, remitters of fairly substantial amounts will be placed in a position of difficulty. The cost of making a remittance of, say, Rs. 2,000 at the present rates by insured post, assuming that the amount is sent in two covers insured for Rs. 1,000 and Rs. 1,000 respectively is as follows:—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Registration charges	0	6	0
Insurance fees	4	8	0
Minimum postage	1	2	0
Total ..	5	0	0

This compares very unfavourably with the rates at which a draft could be obtained from a bank or a supply bill or a telegraphic transfer from Government treasury. It seems to us that the existing rates are high and, although since we have not all the facts before us, it is not possible for us to examine the basis of these rates and to criticise them effectively, we find it difficult to believe that they could not be lowered without causing excessive loss to the postal department. Furthermore, it is our considered view that if the general principle that the improvement of remittance facilities is a desideratum of first class importance is accepted, the taxpayer must be prepared to bear a reasonable amount of extra expenditure with this end in view.

10. It was represented to us that some insurance companies are in a position to offer cover for remittances of notes in transit through the post sent by approved parties, such as banks, at a very low rate, namely, 1/32 per cent. Prima facie, this bears out our view that the present rates for postal insurance are excessive. At the same time, we recognise that the postal department is organised on a commercial basis. If a reputable insurance company can be found which is prepared to carry the risk for currency notes in transit at a reasonable premium, the solution of the problem might take the form of an agreement between Government and the company by means of which Government would in effect reinsure all its risks at a comparatively low rate. If some arrangement of this kind could be arrived at, Government should be in a position to offer substantially lower rates to the public. We suggest that if the risk can be covered with an outside insurance company for, say 3/64 per cent, the postal department could charge a flat rate of one anna per cent to the remitter, three-fourths of which would be paid to the insurance company and the other one-fourth retained to cover expenses. In addition, the postal department would retain the usual fees for registration and postage. We recommend very strongly that Government should take up actively the consideration of this question of reducing insurance rates for remittances of currency notes by post with special reference to the suggestion about reinsurance which we have made above, as we feel that the position cannot be regarded as satisfactory until remittance of whole notes by insured post has been made substantially cheaper. We further recommend that the maximum amount for which one cover may be insured should be raised from Rs. 2,000 to Rs. 5,000

11. Remittances between places where there are Government treasuries or sub-treasuries by means of supply bills and telegraphic transfers.—The present system under which either general or special sanction has to be obtained from a currency authority in almost all cases before a supply bill or a telegraphic transfer can be issued is, in our opinion, definitely cumbrous and inconvenient for the remitter, and we also consider that the rates now charged both for supply bills and telegraphic transfers are excessive. We are informed that the question has already been under the consideration of Government and a plan designed to liberalise these facilities and to remove most of their defects was submitted to us. In this scheme it is proposed to fix maximum amounts which can be issued by a treasury or sub-treasury on another treasury or sub-treasury on any one day without previous sanction. The minimum amount for a supply bill is reduced from Rs. 1,000 to Rs. 500 and the revised rates proposed are :—

	Annas per cent.
For supply bills of Rs. 500 up to Rs. 5,000 ...	¼
For supply bills of over Rs. 5,000	1
For telegraphic transfers of Rs. 5,000 and upwards	½

(Minimum amount Rs. 5,000.)

We recommend that the revised scheme be adopted and brought into force with the following modifications as soon as possible. A flat rate of 1/16 per cent for bills from Rs. 500 to Rs. 10,000 and 1/32 per cent for bills or transfers in excess of Rs. 10,000 This will bring the rate for supply bills more into consonance with the recommendations which we make below in respect of remittances between banks. Our actual proposals may be summarized as follows:—

(a) That the minimum amount for a supply bill be reduced from Rs. 1,000 to Rs. 500 and the rate of commission fixed at 1/16 per cent up to Rs. 10,000 and 1/32 per cent for amounts above Rs. 10,000 ;

(b) That the commission on telegraphic transfers for amounts from Rs. 5,000 to Rs. 10,000 should be reduced to 1/16 per cent and for amounts in excess of Rs. 10 000 to 1/32 per cent; and

(c) that the maximum amounts which may be issued on any one day without previous sanction should be fixed as follows :—

Supply bills.

	Rs.
By a treasury on another treasury	50,000
By a sub-treasury on a treasury	10,000
By a treasury or sub-treasury on a sub-treasury ...	10,000

Telegraphic transfers.

By a treasury or branch of the Imperial Bank of India on another treasury	25,000
By a sub-treasury on a treasury	5,000
By a treasury, branch of the Imperial Bank of India, on sub-treasury or a sub-treasury	5,000

Between places where there are currency chests in charge of the Imperial Bank of India, the Bank issues drafts or telegraphic transfers to the public at rates not higher than those prescribed by Government for supply bills and telegraphic transfers between treasuries and sub-treasuries. The new maxima rates will apply, therefore, to such remittances also.

12. Bank remittances.—In considering the question of bank remittances it is necessary to bear in mind that the Reserve Bank Act has been passed by the Legislature and that the Bank will probably commence to function at a reasonably early date. While, therefore, we feel that it is not possible at this stage definitely to bind the Reserve Bank as regards any particular remittance proposals, we think that they must consider the problem in relation to the changes which are likely to take place. We examined, therefore, in the first instance whether any recommendation could be properly made regarding remittance arrangements between the Reserve Bank and the banks to be included in the Second Schedule of the Act. The scheduled banks have certain responsibilities placed on them by section 42 of the Act and, in particular, they will be required to keep in deposit with the Reserve Bank certain percentages of their demand and time liabilities. In our opinion it will be necessary to provide such remittance facilities for the scheduled banks as will enable them to maintain their minimum deposit at the required figure without undue inconvenience or expense. With this end in view, we suggest that each scheduled bank should be required to name a head office or a place where there is a branch of the Reserve Bank, or if there is no branch of the scheduled Bank at a place where there is a branch of the Reserve Bank. The scheduled bank should nominate a branch of the Reserve Bank at which it will maintain an account for the foregoing purpose. Solely to enable such banks to maintain their minimum deposits with the Reserve Bank we recommend that they be allowed remittances through currency in bills of not less than Rs. 10,000 at any time from any of their branches to their named head office, or to the branch of the Reserve Bank at which they keep their account. We do not feel that it will be within our terms of reference to go further than this, or to make any wider recommendation.

13. Remittances between branches of banks situate at places where there are currency chests in charge of the Imperial Bank of India are now effected mail or telegraphic transfers at 1/32 per cent. We think that is undesirable from every point of view, and particularly in view of the fact that we propose to recommend the abolition of payment of cut notes, that this rate should be reduced forthwith to 1/64 per cent. We realize that a reduction of the rate will not serve the end we have in view fully if the benefit is not passed on to the general remitting public. On this point it is our considered opinion that the force of competition between banks must lead to a general all-round reduction in the rate at which remittance can be obtained by the public. As from information before us it appears that a large proportion of the remittances now effected by means of cut notes is made by banks, the recommendations we make above will go a great way towards solving the problem with which we have been asked to deal.

14. Currency Notes (Refund) Rules.—We are definitely of opinion that the time has come when steps should be taken to stop the deliberate mutilation of the currency for the purposes of remittance provided the recommendations which we have made above can be adopted. We think it is most probable that a refusal to recognise cut notes as legal tender will command greater acceptance and lead to less dissatisfaction than the present policy of discouraging the cutting of notes without actually preventing it.

15. The case against remittance by means of half notes is a strong one and may be briefly summed up as follows:—

(a) It is obviously contrary to modern commercial usage in all great trading countries and is a relic of times when other means of remittance either did not exist or were excessively risky and expensive.

(b) It is expensive from the point of view of the taxpayer, because (i) the effective 'life' of a currency note is enormously shortened, and (ii) the costs of examination and cancellation of cut notes are much heavier than in the case of whole notes.

(c) It deprives the State in the postal department of a substantial amount of revenue inasmuch as half currency notes are usually sent by post insured for a nominal amount only, i.e., the remitter relies on the efficiency of the post office but does not pay a premium commensurate with the service placed at his disposal.

(d) It militates directly against any improvement in other and more modern means of remittance and hampers the development of banking activities.

16. At the present time, owing to the fact that Rs. 5 and Rs. 10 notes have only one number, it is not possible to pay on cut notes of these denominations, and even if no change were made in the rules the practice of cutting those notes will have completely died out within a very short period. So far as the lower denominations of notes, therefore, are concerned the position will remain unchanged. So far as notes of higher denominations are concerned, we are definitely of the opinion that the rules should be so framed as to provide that no payment will be made on any note which, in the opinion of the Currency Officer to whom the claim is presented, has been deliberately cut or torn. On the other hand, we consider that claims to payment for notes which have been accidentally mutilated or damaged should be met in the most liberal spirit. We also consider that the existing provisions for payment on notes which have been lost or wholly destroyed in certain circumstances after the lapse of sufficient number of years to safeguard Government against the possibility of fraudulent claims should be retained. A set of draft rules is attached which, in our opinion, meets the above requirements. We think it essential that the new refund rules should be given the widest possible publicity and also that there should be a period of at least six months between the date of publication and the date on which they will come into force.

17. We are of opinion that in the interim period before the introduction of the new rules claims presented should be dealt with more leniently than at present, and in particular, that rule 6-A which has given rise to a certain amount of discontent should be administered less strictly than at present.

18. Although this matter is not strictly within our purview, we are of opinion that Government should aim at destroying all currency notes that are once returned to them and issuing new ones in their place. Had it not been for the financial stringency we would have made such a recommendation, but in the meantime we recommend that the departmental orders issued by the currency department should be such as would clearly lay down that currency notes which are soiled to an extent that make them unacceptable to the public should not be issued again. We are further of opinion that all notes before reissue should be carefully picked and those considered suitable for reissue should be fumigated presh therein. We understand that this can be done without incurring excessive cost.

19. In the course of our deliberations, we had the advantage of informal conversations with the representatives of the Bombay Chamber of Commerce and the Indian Merchants' Chamber, Bombay.

20. Mr. Kelly wishes to put on record that although he has signed the report and is in agreement with the other members of the Committee, he has signed it as a member of the Committee and that nothing in the report should be taken as indicating any opinion of the Government of India by reason of the fact that he has signed it.

No. 87.—The Government direct that the rules shown in the appendix to this order be observed in making a free supply of copies of Old Records of Fort St. George published by the Madras Record Office.

APPENDIX.

RULES REGARDING THE FREE SUPPLY OF COPIES OF "OLD RECORDS OF FORT ST GEORGE" PUBLISHED BY THE MADRAS RECORD OFFICE UNDER ORDERS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

The Records of Fort St. George published by the Madras Record Office are generally supplied free only to Newspapers, Institutions and persons of well established fame in India and abroad. In dealing with the future admission of Newspapers, Institutions and persons to the privilege of free supply of these publications, the following principles should be observed :—

(1) Government must be satisfied that the Institutions will carefully preserve as a public trust the books gifted to them. To ensure this, free supply of these publications should be made only if they satisfy the following conditions :—

(a) the institution concerned is permanently embodied by registration under Act XXI of 1860 ;

(b) its property is held as a public trust and not liable to come into private possession ;

(c) it possesses a properly organised library housed in a proper building if possible, a public building from which the books are not liable to be ejected at short notice by owners of or claimants to the building ;

(d) the library is in the custody of a paid whole-time librarian or at least some gentleman whose status in the historical world would be a guarantee of proper control ; and

(e) the society is financially sound and constituted and controlled by a properly elected committee on which are scholars of recognised repute.

(2) Such publications should be given only if an adequate use of the book will be made by scholars for purposes of historical research. This should be judged by the journals or other publications issued by the institution itself as a serious contribution to study.

(3) The general reputation of the institution should be such as to establish a claim for such a concession from the Government so that the grant of a request for a free supply may not become an inconvenient precedent.

(4) In regard to institutions outside the Presidency the grant should be subject to the recommendation from the local Governments concerned. Should the question of the cost of printing arise, a preference might be given to foreign societies in South India, such as those in Mysore and Travancore, over those in other parts of India.

(5) In the case of institutions outside India or private persons, each case should be decided on its own merits.

(6) All institutions and persons admitted to this privilege will, in return, supply free to the Madras Record Office a copy of their publications.

Deputy Secretary to Government.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 28th August 1934 :—

COUNCIL OF STATE BILL No. 3 OF 1934.

A Bill to amend the Hindu Law of inheritance in certain respects and entitling women to certain rights in the property of a joint Hindu family and to a share of inheritance on partition.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law of property of the joint Hindu family, to declare women to be entitled to the same rights as men and to a share of inheritance on partition of the Hindu family properties; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. (i) This Act may be called the Hindu Woman's Inheritance Act, 1933.

(ii) It extends to the whole of British India.

2. Notwithstanding any custom, rule or interpretation of Hindu Law, a Hindu woman shall be deemed to be a member of the coparcenary of which her father is a member and shall be entitled—

(i) to the same rights to the property of the coparcenary as the male members thereof ;

(ii) to receive the same share on partition of the family properties as a son of her father.

3. This Act shall not be deemed in any way to affect—

(a) the terms or incidents of any transfer of property made or effected before the commencement of this Act;

(b) the validity, invalidity, effect or consequence of anything already suffered or done before the commencement of this Act;

(c) any right or liability created under a partition, or an agreement for a partition, of a joint family property made before the commencement of this Act; or

(d) any remedy or proceeding in respect of such right or liability as to render invalid or in any way affect anything done before the commencement of this Act in a proceeding pending in a court at such commencement; and any such remedy and any such proceeding as is herein referred to may be enforced, instituted or continued as the case may be, as if this Act had not been passed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The rule of Hindu Law excluding the Hindu woman from rights to property of her father or grandfather is ton archaic and requires modification having regard to modern conditions. Almost every system of law gives the woman certain rights to family properties and a share on partition. No social reform intended to improve the status of woman can be effective unless her economic position is improved, her rights to property is recognised by law and placed on a fair and equal footing with those of her family. This Bill seeks to place the Hindu woman on the same footing as the man with regard to properties belonging to a Hindu family.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to provide for the application of the Naval Discipline Act to the Indian Navy was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 28th August 1934:—

Papers Nos. I and II.

We, the undersigned, members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to provide for the application of the Naval Discipline Act to the Indian Navy was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted in the margin and have now the honour to submit this our report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

2. In agreement with the opinion expressed by several of the authorities to whom the Bill was circulated we think that the English statute should be reproduced in extenso with the modifications made by the present Bill set forth in the statute itself, so that the law applicable to the Indian Navy will appear in a self-contained measure. We have accordingly redrafted the Bill so that the Naval Discipline Act appears in a Schedule to the Bill with those modifications which the Bill makes in that Act incorporated in the text of the Act itself.

3. We have made certain changes in the proposals contained in the Bill. Those changes can most conveniently be set out by reference to the sections of the statute affected.

4. In sections 25 and 26 we have omitted certain unnecessary words referring to municipal corporations.

5. In section 6 we have defined the offences therein referred to by reference to the Indian Penal Code, and we have assigned to them the penalties provided in each case by that Code.

6. We have altered the first clause of section 53 in order to apply the law contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, sections 401 and 402, to suspension, remission and commutation of sentences.

7. In sections 63 and 64 we have provided for the taking of an affirmation instead of the oath there laid down in cases in which that oath would not be suitable.

8. To the new section 68 proposed by the Bill we have added a proviso that no repeal shall take place in consequence of any modifications made by the Governor General in Council in the practice and procedure of Courts martial.

9. We have decided that section 38A relating to the liability of seamen for the maintenance of their wives and children should not be omitted. We have accordingly made in that section, which we retain in the Act, the necessary modifications to apply it to Indian conditions.

10. The Bill was published as follows:—

In English,

NOTE.

In signing this Report we wish to make it clear that we take at its face value the statement made on behalf of Government that the sole principle underlying this Bill is a mere change of designation and status and would not commit the House to any additional expenditure upon the strengthening or equipment of the Indian Navy. We consider that the signatures to this report should not be understood as our acquiescence in the unfortunate predicament of the Indian Legislature in having to find money for the defence of India upon which they can exercise no control.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bill is the outcome of the Bill to provide for the application of the Naval Discipline Act to the Indian Navy, which is at present before the Legislature. If that Bill becomes law it is essential that members of the Indian Navy should have the same civil rights and liabilities as the personnel of His Majesty's Military and Air Forces. To attain this object it is necessary to make formal amendments to certain existing laws and the Bill provides for this being done.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Schedule of import duties contained in the Indian Tariff Act, 1934, has, under the influence of a long succession of amending Acts, become amorphous and the numbering of the items has lost its serial character. The classification of articles is far from scientific and, in order to ascertain the amount of the duty imposed on many of the items contained in the Schedule and the duration of the duty, it is necessary to collate the Act with other Acts such as the Indian Finance Act, 1931, the Indian Finance (Supplementary and Extending) Act, 1931, and the various protection Acts. In practice commercial bodies and importing merchants have recourse, for the vital information required by them regarding customs duties, to a compilation known as the Indian Customs Tariff drawn up by the Department of Commercial Intelligence and Statistics, which goes some way towards supplying an intelligible statement of the Indian Tariff. This compilation, while reproducing the items contained in the Second Schedule to the Indian Tariff Act, 1934, has recognized the necessity for an extensive rearrangement of the order of those items and for stating the rate of duty on each article, not as it appears in the Schedule to the Indian Tariff Act but as it stands when the effect of the surcharges imposed by the two Finance Acts of 1931 and the modifications of duty made by subsidiary Acts has been allowed for. Despite these readjustments the arrangement of items in this compilation also leaves much to be desired, and its variation from the Schedule to the Tariff Act, with which it can be co-ordinated only by the use of a complicated index, is a source of continual trouble.

2. The object of the present Bill is to consolidate the existing provisions of law now to be sought in a multiplicity of enactments as far as possible into one measure, thereby enabling the whole or parts of some fifty Acts to be repealed. The Schedule of import tariffs will thus exhibit as far as possible the actual rate of duty payable on each article under the tariff law for the time being, the only duties not included being those imposed by the Salt (Additional Import Duty) Act, 1931, an Act which contains matter which it would be unsuitable to include in the present Bill. At the same time the items subject to duty have been rearranged upon a scientific plan enabling any particular item to be found without the use of an index, and affording a suitable basis for future modification or supplement by legislation.

3. The Economic Committee of the League of Nations has recently devised the framework of a customs nomenclature designed for general international use by countries imposing tariffs on imports. While this framework is still merely a draft scheme not yet adopted by any nation, it offers a scientific classification made by experts of all articles commonly liable to import duties in accordance with which it is possible to rearrange the items contained in our present Tariff Schedule.

4. The framework arranges the whole body of imports under 21 main classes which form the headings of 21 sections. These sections are subdivided into 86 chapters, which are again subdivided into 941 basic items capable themselves of further subdivision into sub-items.

5. It has not been possible in the Bill to annotate the items in our Tariff Schedule to the 941 items in this framework. To do so would necessitate changes of substance which would be unjustified in what is intended to be a purely consolidating measure, which makes no change in the existing law. But it has been possible without making any change of substance to adopt the 21 sectional headings with one subsidiary section for "Articles not otherwise specified," and to group the existing items in our Tariff Schedule under the 86 chapters of the framework, adopting the numbering of these chapters but not their headings.

6. We are thus enabled to take advantage of the logical scheme of classification of commodities evolved by a body of experts. There are obvious advantages in framing our tariff on a model which is likely to be universally adopted, not the least being the fact that familiarity with the Revised Indian Tariff Schedule will enable Indian commercial interests to understand the tariffs of other countries. Subsequent changes in our Tariff Schedule will not have the effect of producing increased divergence. On the contrary, it will be possible, by using the framework as a guide when alterations are being made, to approximate more and more to the League of Nations scheme.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 1.—The commencement clause is designed to enable the Act to be brought into operation on the date on which the Iron and Steel Duties Act comes into force.

Clause 2.—This reproduces sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) of section 3 and sub-section (4) of section 2 of the existing Tariff Act.

Clause 3.—This reproduces sub-sections (3-A) and (3-B) of section 3 of the Indian Tariff Act, 1894.

Clause 4.—Sub-clauses (1) and (2) reproduce sub-sections (4) and (5) of the Indian Tariff Act, 1894, as these sub-sections will stand when amended by the Iron and Steel Duties Act, 1934.

Clauses 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 reproduce, respectively, sections 5, 7, 8, 8-A, 8-B and 10 of the Indian Tariff Act, 1894.

Clause 11.—The duration of practically all the protective duties in the Second Schedule to the Indian Tariff Act, 1894 is determined at present by a duration clause of some kind in the special Acts which made the amendments in the Tariff Act Schedule by which the protective duties were imposed. Thus, the whole of Part VII of the Second Schedule was inserted by the Steel Industry (Protection) Act, 1927, with effect originally only to the 31st March, 1934, and with effect as subsequently amended only to the 31st October, 1934. Act III of 1931, however, while it inserted Item No. 154-A in that Part provided that the duty thereon should have effect up to the 31st March, 1934. Similarly, by Act XXXII of 1931 the duty on Item No. 154-B (Magnesium chloride) which is contained in Part VII is to have effect up to the 31st March, 1936. Again by Act XIII of 1932 the duty on Item No. 157 (Sugar) which is contained in Part VII is to have effect up to the 31st March, 1935. It is only by reference to the various protective Acts that the duration of these protective duties can be ascertained. In the revised Schedule to this Bill a special column has been inserted in which is specified the date of expiry of every duty of limited duration, this date being reproduced from the relevant protection Act. Sub-clause (1) of clause 11 of the Bill explicitly limits the duration of each such duty to the date so specified.

Sub-clauses (2) and (3) reproduce the effect of section 3 of the Wheat (Export Duty) Act, 1931, allowing the whole of that Act, with the amending Acts to be repealed, although it does not expire until the 31st March, 1935. The duties imposed by the repealed Act are included in the revised Schedule contained in this Bill.

Clause 12.—This reproduces section 3 of the Indian Tariff Act, 1894

Clause 13.—This corresponds to sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) of section 2 of the Indian Tariff Act, 1894, except for the verbal modifications rendered necessary by the fact that as that Act itself adopted notifications made under preceding Acts, so it might be necessary for this Bill in turn to adopt the notifications made prior to 1894.

BILL No. 10 OF 1933.

THE MADRAS MATERNITY BENEFIT BILL.

To

THE HONOURABLE THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF THE GOVERNOR OF MADRAS.

The Select Committee appointed on 30th January 1934 for the purpose of considering the Madras Maternity Benefit Bill of Mr. V. M. Ramaswami Mudaliyar (Bill No. 10 of 1933) has the honour to submit the following report

2. The Bill was published in the Fort St. George Gazette in English on the 15th August 1933, in Tamil, Telugu and Hindustani on the 19th September 1933, in Malayalam on the 26th September 1933 and in Kanarese and Oriya on the 17th October 1933.

3 The Committee met at 3 p.m. on the 4th of May 1934 at the Secretariat Buildings, Stonehouse Hill, and resolved that reports be obtained regarding the detailed working of the Bombay Maternity Benefit Act, 1929, and the Central Provinces Maternity Benefit Act, 1930, from the Governments of Bombay and the Central Provinces respectively, and also the attitude of the factory-owners there towards the Acts. It also resolved that opinions of Chambers of Commerce, representatives of factory-owners and those employing industrial labour and also trade unions be obtained regarding the Bill.

4 The Committee met on the 7th and 8th September 1934 at the Committee Room, Fort St. George, for the purpose of considering the reports and opinions received and also for considering the provisions of the Bill.

5. The Committee considers that in confining the benefit of this measure to factory labour and in not extending it to agricultural labour, the Bill proceeds on right lines. It however agrees with the opinion of the Royal Commission on Labour that maternity benefit should in the first instance be granted only to women workers in perennial factories and not to those in seasonal factories and has made the necessary amendment in clause 5. For distinguishing seasonal factories from factories which are not seasonal, the Committee has accepted the definition of 'seasonal factories' in the Factories Act, 1934, recently passed in the Central Legislature.

6. Clause 2.—As framed, the Bill was applicable to the City of Madras and its suburbs and to six other towns, and to such other places as the Local Government may, by notification, extend it to. The Committee considers that the Bill should apply to the whole of the Presidency of Madras and not to a few places only. It has accordingly amended sub-clause (2) of this clause.

7. Clause 3.—As the words 'employ' and 'employed' are not defined in the Factories Act, 1934, the Committee has omitted them from sub-clause (b) of this clause. The Committee has however added the words 'worker' and 'seasonal factory' to the expressions defined by this clause The Committee agrees that the important words used in this Bill should have the same connotation as they have in the Factories Act, 1934.

8. Clause 4.—This clause contains a provision intended rather to promote the health and welfare of women workers in factories generally than to deal with any question of maternity benefit. The Committee considers that a provision making it an offence for a woman to work in any factory during the four weeks succeeding her confinement is unnecessary. The Committee has therefore deleted sub-clause (2) of this clause and clause 11. The Committee however considers that sub-clause (1) of this clause and clause 12 which make it an offence for an employer knowingly to employ a woman in any factory during the four weeks immediately succeeding her confinement are unobjectionable and may be retained.

9. Clause 5.—The Committee has considered the question whether the amount of maternity benefit should be a flat rate of 8 annas per day or whether it should be the average daily wages calculated with reference to the wages earned by the worker during the three months prior to her absence or whether it should be the rate of wages earned by her on the date of the commencement of her absence The Committee considers that on the whole a flat rate of 8 annas per day is the most advantageous, but Mr. Metherell does not agree to this view.

As regards the proviso, the Committee considers that a qualifying period of six months of service immediately preceding the date of notice of absence is too short and has accordingly extended it to a period of nine months. The Royal Commission on Labour has recommended that the period should at least be nine months and the Committee agrees with that recommendation.

The Committee agrees that the maximum period for which maternity benefit should be given should be seven weeks, three weeks before and four weeks after confinement.

10. Clause 6.—This clause deals with the notice of absence to be given by a woman worker entitled to maternity benefit under this Act, to her employer. The Committee notes that in the Central Provinces Maternity Benefit Act, if a woman has failed to give notice of absence to her employer, before her confinement, she can do so within 48 hours after her confinement. The Committee has resolved to adopt the provision of the Central Provinces Maternity Benefit Act instead of this clause, with the modification that such notice can be given within a week after confinement instead of within 48 hours after confinement.

Sub-clause (3).—The Committee thinks that the production of a certified extract from a birth register stating that the woman has given birth to a child may not be practicable in all cases and has accordingly provided for the production of " such proof as the Local Government may by rule prescribe."

11. Clause 7.—This clause provides for the person to whom the maternity benefit should be paid. The Committee considers that the proper person to receive the maternity benefit is the woman concerned or, in the case of her death, her nominee; and in the absence of a nominee, her legal representative. It has made the necessary amendments in this respect.

12. Clause 8.—To prevent an unscrupulous employer from dispensing without sufficient grounds with the services of a pregnant woman worker who can be seen to be some six or seven months in that condition for the purpose of evading the liability for payment of maternity benefit under this Bill, the Committee has by a majority inserted in this clause an additional provision intended to have that effect.

13. Clause 10.—The Committee considers that the maximum amount of fine which can be inflicted on a conviction under this Act should not exceed Rs. 250 and has accordingly substituted Rs. 250 for Rs. 500.

14. Clause 13.—This clause provided that a court shall not take cognizance of an offence unless complaint thereof was made within six months of the date " on which the offence is alleged to have been committed ". In view of the fact that even after the expiry of six months from the date of the offence, an offence can be alleged to have been committed within six months, the Committee has decided that no court shall convict a person of any offence under this Act or any rule thereunder unless complaint has been made within six months of the date on which it was committed At the same time, the Committee has inserted a provision excluding from this period of six months the period taken by a private complainant, in case the Inspector of Factories has not himself instituted a prosecution, in applying for and obtaining the previous sanction of the Inspector of Factories.

15. Clause 14.—Item (e) of sub clause (2) of this clause enables the Local Government to make rules on ' any other matter for which no provision has been made in this Act and for which provision is, in the opinion of the Governor in Council, necessary.' The Committee considers that this is too wide and that it is also unnecessary. If any matter arises for which no provision has been made in this Act and for which in the opinion of the Local Government provision is necessary, the Local Government should come up before the Legislative Council with an amending Bill. Item (e) has therefore been deleted.

Sub-clause (4).—The Committee considers that regard being had to the character of the subjects on which rules can be made by the Local Government, it is unnecessary to provide any further safeguards than that the rules should be previously published. The second and third sentences of this sub-clause have therefore been omitted.

16. The Committee has made various other changes which it is unnecessary to detail here. A copy of the Bill as amended by the Committee is annexed

17 The Committee considers that the Bill as amended by it should be republished.

Chairman.

BILL No 10 OF 1933.

THE MADRAS MATERNITY BENEFIT BILL.

[As amended by the Select Committee.]

A Bill to prevent the employment of women in factories and to provide for payment of maternity benefit to them, for some time before and some time after confinement.

WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent the employment of women in factories, and to provide for the payment of maternity benefit to them for some time before and some time after confinement;

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor-General has been obtained to the passing of this Act;

It is hereby enacted as follows —

1. This Act may be called the Madras Maternity Benefit Act, 1934.

2. (1) It shall come into force on the first day of April 1935.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Presidency of Madras.

3. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) 'employer' includes 'an occupier of a factory' as defined in the . . . Factories Act, 1934, and the manager of a factory;

(b) the expressions 'factory,' 'inspector of factories,' 'seasonal factory' and 'worker' shall have the same meanings as are respectively assigned to them by the . . . Factories Act, 1934; and

(c) 'maternity benefit' means the amount of money payable under the provisions of this Act to a woman worker in a factory.

4. After this Act comes into operation, no employer shall knowingly employ a woman in any factory during the four weeks immediately following the day of her confinement.

5. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every woman worker in a factory not being a seasonal factory shall be entitled to the payment of maternity benefit at the rate of eight annas a day for the actual days of her absence for the period immediately preceding her confinement and for the four weeks immediately following her confinement as mentioned in sub-section (2):

Provided that a woman shall not be entitled to maternity benefit unless she has been employed in the factory of the employer from whom she claims maternity benefit for a period of not less than nine months immediately preceding the date on which she notifies her intention under sub-section (1) of section 6.

(2) The maximum period for which any woman shall be entitled to the payment of maternity benefit shall be seven weeks, that is to say, three weeks up to and including the day of her confinement and four weeks immediately following that day. If a woman dies during this period the maternity benefit shall be payable only for the days up to and including the day of her death.

6. (1) Any woman worker in a factory . . . entitled to maternity benefit under the provisions of this Act may . . . give notice in writing to her employer stating . . . that her maternity benefit may be paid to her or to such other person as she may nominate in this behalf and that she will not work in any employment during the period for which she receives maternity benefit. If the woman worker has not been confined, such notice shall state that she expects to be confined within one month from the date of the notice; if she has been confined, such notice shall be given within one week of her confinement.

(2) The employer shall on receipt of the notice permit such woman to absent herself from the factory . . . until four weeks after the day of her confinement.

(3) The amount of maternity benefit for the period up to and including the day of confinement shall be paid by the employer to the woman within forty-eight hours of the production of such proof as the Local Government may by rule prescribe that the woman has been confined. The amount due for the subsequent period shall be paid punctually each fortnight in arrear.

7. If a woman worker entitled to maternity benefit under the provisions of this Act dies during the period for which she is entitled to maternity benefit, the employer shall pay the amount of maternity benefit due to the nominee mentioned in the notice under sub-section (1) of section 6 and if there is no such nominee to her legal representative.

8. (1) When a woman absents herself from work in accordance with the provisions of this Act, it shall not be lawful for her employer to give her notice of dismissal during such absence or on such a day that the notice will expire during such absence.

(2) No notice of dismissal given by an employer to a woman worker within a period of three months before her confinement shall be valid or have the effect of depriving her of any maternity benefit which but for such notice she would have been entitled to under this Act:

Provided that where the notice is given for sufficient cause to be approved by the Commissioner of Labour and is not such notice as falls under sub-section (1) the notice shall take effect; and

Provided that pregnancy by itself or inability to do the usual quantity of work on account of pregnancy shall not by itself be regarded as sufficient ground for the purposes of this sub-section.

9. If a woman works in any factory after she has been permitted by her employer to absent herself under the provisions of section 6, she shall forfeit her claim to the payment of the maternity benefit to which she is entitled.

10. If any employer contravenes the provisions of this Act, he shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees.

11. (1) No prosecution for any offence against this Act or any rules thereunder shall be instituted except by or with the previous sanction of the Inspector of Factories.

(2) No Court inferior to that of a Presidency Magistrate or of a Magistrate of the First Class shall try any offence against this Act or any rules thereunder.

12. No Court shall take cognizance of, or convict a person for, any offence against this Act or any rule thereunder unless complaint thereof has been made within six months of the date on which the offence was committed. In computing the period of six months aforesaid, the time, if any, taken for the purpose of obtaining the previous sanction of the Inspector of Factories under sub-section (1) of section 11 shall be excluded.

13. (1) The Local Government may make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

(a) the preparation and maintenance of a muster roll and the particulars to be entered in such roll;

(b) the inspection of factories for the purposes of this Act by inspectors of factories;

(c) the exercise of powers and the performance of duties by inspectors of factories for the purposes of this Act; and

(d) the method of payment of maternity benefit in so far as provision has not been made in this Act. . . . . .

(3) Any such rule may provide that a contravention thereof shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

(4) The making of rules under this section shall be subject to the condition of previous publication.

14. A copy of the provisions of this Act and the rules thereunder in the local vernacular shall be exhibited in a conspicuous place by the employer in every factory in which women are employed.

മേലെ കാണിച്ച വൈഷമ്യങ്ങളെയും കാരണങ്ങളെയും ഒഴിവാക്കുവാൻ വേണ്ടി—

(a) മുനിസിപ്പാലിറ്റികൾക്കുവേണ്ടി തയ്യാറാക്കുന്ന തിരഞ്ഞെടുപ്പു പട്ടികകളിൽ വരുത്തുന്ന മേഗതികളുടെ പട്ടികകൾ കൊല്ലത്തോറും പ്രസിദ്ധപ്പെടുത്തുന്നതിനുള്ള വ്യവസ്ഥയും ;

(b) ഓരോ കൂട്ടത്തിൽ എട്ടോ അതിലധികമോ ഡിസ്ട്രിക്റ്റുകളുള്ള കൂട്ടം ഡിസ്ട്രിക്റ്റുകളായി സംസ്ഥാനത്തെ വിഭാഗിക്കുവാനും (ബിൽ നടപ്പായി വരുമ്പോൾ ഗവർണ്ണരുടെ നടപടിയിൽ വരുത്തുവാൻ ഉദ്ദേശിക്കുന്ന മുന്നു കൂട്ടം ഡിസ്ട്രിക്റ്റുകളെ ഉപരോധത്തിൽ കാണിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നു) ;

(c) ഉന്നം കൊള്ളുന്നതിൽ നിന്നോ ഓരോ കൂട്ടത്തിലുള്ള ഏതൊരു മുനിസിപ്പലിറ്റിയുടെയും തിരഞ്ഞെടുപ്പു കാര്യകാരണങ്ങൾ സ്ഥിരമായ എതാണ് ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥന്മാരുടെ സഹായത്തോടുകൂടി തയ്യാറാക്കി പ്രസിദ്ധപ്പെടുത്തുവാൻ എർപ്പാടു ചെയ്യാനും ;

(d) അങ്ങിനെ തയ്യാറാക്കി പ്രസിദ്ധപ്പെടുത്തുന്നതിനുള്ള കാലം നാലു മാസക്കാലത്തേക്കു നിലവാനും പ്രത്യേക സന്ദർഭങ്ങളിൽ രണ്ടു മാസത്തിൽ കവിയാത്ത ഒരു കൂടുതൽ കാലത്തേക്കും കൂടി നിലവാൻ സാദ്ധ്യമാകുന്നതു തിരഞ്ഞെടുപ്പു സ്ഥാനം ചേർക്കുവാനും ;

(e) ഏതെങ്കിലും ഒരു കൊല്ലത്തിൽ ഏതു മുനിസിപ്പലിറ്റികളുടെയും പട്ടികകൾ തയ്യാറാക്കിയിരിക്കുന്നവെങ്കിൽ ആ മുനിസിപ്പലിറ്റികളെ സംബന്ധിച്ചേടത്തോളം മാത്രം സാധാരണയായോ പൊതുവായോ ആയ തിരഞ്ഞെടുപ്പുകൾ നടത്തുവാനും ആലോചിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നു.
